

From: GibIV@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 8:00pm
Subject: Government should look at PRIORITIES..

IF the U.S. Government spent the money,time and resources on the war against terrorism, cancer research, education instead of wasting OUR TAX $$$ on this matter our country would be way better off, The only potential here is to stifle innovation and creativity and without that we would be just another third world country instead of a great superpower that owes it's strength to innovation and creativity to the likes of Microsoft.